Papa Smurf
didn't tell us to
fetch smurfberries,
just so you could

Papa Smurf

Heh-Heh!
Look, Azrael!
This is a

Yes, Papa Smurf! Whatever you say, Papa Smurf!

Ground raisin seeds... A drop of castor oil... a dash of lemon juice...

Meanwhile, more and more things are getting stuck to the sundae...

I made the potion! Let us smurf a surprise visit to Gargamel!

BULLPEN BULLETINS

A COUPLE OF THINGS WENT WRONG LAST MONTH...

First, I was so late with the Bullpen Bulletins manuscript that a number of Marvel Comics had to be printed and shipped without it! An ad was inserted in its place at the printer's.

Second, when the Bullpen Page finally got done, it was so late that I couldn't take the time to check it over properly before it went out. As a result, a photo of the Marvel folks in attendance at the wedding of star writer Roger Stern and lovely Carmela Merlo was printed half the size I'd intended, and therefore looked a lot like mud.

HERE'S WHY!

Last month I was on the road for almost three weeks, attending the spectacular San Diego Convention in sunny southern California, and the incredible Chicago Con in the wonderful Windy City. I took my briefcase and a large portfolio, both full of work, along with me... but while I was in San Diego - I admit it - I succumbed to temptation. I spent two whole days plus a stolen afternoon or three relaxing. I played racquetball and lifted weights at the hotel's health spa, I went swimming in the hotel pool, jogging along the scenic waterfront, body surfing at the beach, and partying far into the night. I was joined in these thoroughly irresponsible activities by some of my favorite people - Joe Rubinstein, Jim Starlin and his wife Daina Graziunas, Bill Sienkiewicz, John Byrne and his wife Andrea, Carl Potts and Christie Scheele. It was wonderful - the nearest thing I've had to a vacation in about seven years.

The price for those couple of days off was high. The Bullpen Bulletins did not appear in a number of Marvel titles, and where it did, the photo it carried was naught but a blur. My fault. All my fault.

WHAT'S BEING DONE...

Well, I've already arranged for several of your favorite Marvel personalities to do guest columns which will appear on this page every once in a while when I think you folks out there need a change of pace - or when I'm in a jam! Also, I'm going to print another picture of Roger and Carmela when I run his guest column. Also, they made me give back my salary for last month...

OKAY, ON WITH NEW BUSINESS!

Did anyone not see the nifty, sixteen-page Marvel Comics Guide to Comic Collecting which was included in every single copy of The Amazing Spider-Man #234? From the response we received it's the most popular bonus feature ever offered in a comic book! If you somehow missed it, head for (or write to) the comics specialty shop nearest you. Many of them ordered a bunch of extra copies of Spider-Man #234 and of the Guide by itself, and they may still have a few left. If you don't know of any comics specialty shops near you, check the ads in this comic! Many shops and distributors advertise in Marvel publications. Or, write to me. I'll get back to you with a list of shops in your general area. Speaking of such shops, I'd like to thank the folks from SUNSHINE COMICS, located at 6370 BIRD ROAD, SOUTH MIAMI, FLORIDA 33155 for their help and cooperation, without which we couldn't have published the Collector's Guide. They originated the guide, and did hundreds of thousands of collectors across the country a service by allowing us to publish and widely distribute it. Thanks, folks!

MARVEL TROUNCES WARREN!

Thought you'd like to know that on August 3, 1982 the Bullpen Bombers trashed the Warren Warriors on the softball field by a score of 20-1. Our left-fielder and manager Robbie Carosella led the attack with five hits in six at bats, including two homers.

Here's the line-up:

RF - Archie Goodwin, Editorial Director of EPIC - 4 for 6; LF - Robbie Carosella, Photostat Operator - 5 for 6; SS - Harry Eisenstein, Mail Clerk - 0 for 5 (but brilliant in the field); 1B - Jim Shooter, Editor-in-Chief - 2 for 5; CF - Ken Fedunewicz, Special Projects Production - 2 for 5; 3B - Nel Yomtov, Merchandising Development - 4 for 5; P - John Morelli, Letterer/Correctionist - 4 for 5; 2B - Lance Toombs, Assistant Editor - 4 for 5; SC - Ken Lopez, Production Assistant - 2 for 5

We had 'em all the way!

I HAVE TO MENTION...

...that in San Diego, at their annual awards banquet, our own Archie Goodwin, Editorial Director of EPIC Illustrated Magazine, was honored with the prestigious Inkpot Award, acknowledging his contribution to the comics industry. If you want to see one reason why, buy or borrow a copy of EPIC. It'll convince you. A bunch of other Marvel folks have received Inkpots as well over the years. I'll run a complete list here sometime soon.

A WEEK LATER...

...in Chicago, at the Con, disaster nearly struck! You see Spider-Man was there, live and in person to give away free copies of the latest issues of The Amazing Spider-Man to the fans in attendance. The trouble was the shipment of comics never arrived! Fortunately, yours truly happened to bump into old Webhead in his hour of need, and I just happened to be carrying a hundred or so coupons, each good for a free subscription to any Marvel title. I promptly turned the coupons over to our hero, who found them an extremely effective substitute for his missing freebie comics. No problem. Now he owes me one. Just goes to show you, the Boy Scouts are right. Always be prepared.

IT'S ABOUT TIME...

...that I gave Eliot Brown some credit. He's the guy who typesets this thing (and almost every other thing) every month... and he does a darn good job, and we're grateful. But, typesetting isn't his only trick. He's also our resident photographer. He took the stunning photo which graced the cover of Dazzler #21 - as well as most of the other photos that have appeared in Marvel Comics in recent years. If a photo isn't credited otherwise, chances are it's Eliot's work. I should mention, too, that Eliot is our resident technical expert. If something's broken, he can fix it - if something's complicated, he can explain it - if you've got a problem, he can solve it. He draws - and he's especially good at technical drawing, like blueprints, diagrams, cutaways, mechanical drawing - he inks, he colors, he designs, he does boardwork, and other stuff, too, that I can't think of. Best of all, he's a real trouper who's stayed here at the office all night many times helping desperate artists and editors make deadlines. He's probably blushing now, as he typesets this - he's such a humble guy!

Well, Jim, I just don't know what to say, but I think that I'd like to take this singular opportunity to thank all the little people whose coattails I've ridden; when I think of Marvel Comics, the image of selfless comradery almost, almost brings a tear to my eye, the hours of bonhomie, shoulder to shoulder... I can't go on - well, yes I could, but Jim is sliding his forefinger across his throat. Hmm. Thanks, Jim.

Eliot R. Brown

But I couldn't pass this opportunity to let him know he's appreciated! Hooray, Eliot!

CONGRATULATIONS...

...are in order for my former secretary Franki Sienkiewicz. Being my secretary has got to be the toughest job in the place (tied, maybe, with the Traffic Manager job, which Virginia Romita handles so well!). It involves representing Marvel to the world and the freelancers, handling an enormous workload including tons of memos, letters and complicated projects, all of them urgent and important, supervising three or more office assistants and putting up with me. Franki took it all in stride - so well, in fact, that she received an impressive promotion. She's now Administrative Manager of International Licensing. Whew! I feel like I should salute even when I just write that title! I think what it means is, that she's in charge of Europe... or maybe just NATO. Congratulations, Franki!

MY NEW SECRETARY...

Pardon me, my new Administrative Assistant - the job grew a lot while Franki had it, because she was always eagerly shouldering more responsibility, so we had to change the title - is Lea Sapp. Lea is doing a great job and is already making me forget about of what's name. Heh, heh. Just kidding, Franki.

GOTTA GO!

I think I see some NATO bombers headed this way!

Best,

Jim Shooter
